Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

At Big Brothers Big Sisters of Colorado (BBBSC), we are dedicated to creating and supporting mentoring relationships that ignite the inherent potential of youth. Our programs connect young people (Littles) with caring adult mentors (Bigs) through both one-to-one and peer-to-peer mentorship models, providing individualized guidance and encouragement tailored to each mentee's unique journey. Through over 39,042 volunteer hours, valued at $1.4 million, our mentors provided personalized, one-to-one support and shared experiences that build confidence and spark potential. Though the IRS does not allow the reporting of the value of these volunteer-provided services in our financial statements, these services are critical to the BBBSC mentoring program operations. When the reported program-related expenses are combined with the volunteer-provided added value, our program-related expenses equal 73% of our total expenditures.

Programs:

Empowering Youth, Transforming Lives - In FY2024, BBBSC mentored 1,534 youth across Colorado, directly impacting the lives of youth, their families, and their communities. Our mentoring relationships supported 86% of high school Littles in our programs to pursue higher education, 91% of Littles feeling a strong sense of closeness to their Bigs, reinforcing the value of meaningful, sustained relationships, 96% of youth feeling accepted by their peers, a testament to the program's role in building social-emotional confidence, and 87% of youth maintaining or improving their academic performance, with 92% affirming the importance of their mentor in their personal growth.

Expanding Resources to Build Future Leaders - In 2024, BBBSC celebrated Littles graduating from high school-many of whom were the first in their families to reach this milestone. In addition to fostering academic and personal growth, we provided vital resources to support mentees and their families, including backpacks filled with school supplies, resource referrals for clothes, medical care, counseling, furniture, and other essential needs, family support to ensure mentoring relationships remain strong and meaningful, and post-secondary planning to help students prepare for life after high school.

Our Vision for Colorado's Future - At BBBSC, we believe that investing in mentorship is an investment in the future of Colorado. A recent economic impact study revealed that every $1 invested in BBBSC mentoring programs generates an estimated $3 in economic and social benefits for the community. These benefits include higher graduation rates, increased lifetime earnings, and reduced reliance on public assistance programs.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

After the Form 990 is prepared by a third party, management reviews the draft, which is then sent to the finance committee via email for review and approval. The Board is also provided a copy of Form 990 prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

Board members, officers and key employees are required to disclose conflicts of interest and sign a conflict of interest policy review annually. All members are required to identify and remove themselves from instances of conflicts of interest. Compliance with the conflict of interest policy is regularly and consistently monitored by open discussion.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official

The compensation of the President/Chief Executive Officer shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors. The Board obtains data from the annual comparative salary report from the Colorado Nonprofit Association. To the extent reasonably feasible, the Board shall obtain data on the compensation of officers holding similar positions of authority within comparable organizations, shall set the compensation based on such data and an evaluation of the officer's performance and experience as related to the requirements of the position, and shall document the basis for the determination including the comparison data used, the requirements of the position, and the evaluation of the officer's performance and experience.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers

The compensation of the other officers shall be determined from time to time by the President/CEO, or by another officer or committee to which such authority has been delegated by the President/CEO. Salary bands are established and reviewed by the Board or the President/CEO, and compared to annual market based salary surveys. Salaries are deemed to be current and market comparable.
